Around The Church Baptisms

Back On Campus Colossians

Thank you for your continued prayers and partnership. As you may remember, last month was a busy one. What a comfort amidst the busyness to know you all were praying for us. It continues to be a great joy to serve our King with you.

As I've had the chance to visit with different church communities this past month, baptism has been a consistent thread.

While in Florida I had the chance to celebrate baptism with one of the large churches in the Orlando area. In the living waters of the Atlantic Ocean 113 individuals were baptized.

Two churches in the Chicagoland area have recently shared with me about preparation for their baptism services in the coming weeks.

Baptism is a clear reminder of the work we get to be a part of, the work God is doing in lives of those around us. What better cause to give your energy and life to than lives transformed by the grace of God. Thanks for doing so with us.

Often I have shared about the great things God is doing in the lives of my dear friends Matt & Ty - sophomores living intentionally in the dorms reaching out to their peers.

While back in Champaign last month I had the chance to catch-up with them. We shared pizza at an iconic Champaign location, Papa Dell's. As we talked, they shared with me the things they had been learning about leadership; how leading well looks like trusting God and looking to Him as they plan and prepare each week.

Meeting weekly in their dorm room they've been studying through Colossians with about 12 other students. During the study Matt & Ty began to feel the burden to share The Gospel in a clear way with many of these folks. A burden met with much excitement and some fear.

I hope you'll join me in praying for the truth of Jesus to go out through Matt & Ty; and not just them but all the other leaders on campus. In a number of dorms eager students are waiting for the truth that makes sense of life. The harvest is plentiful, the workers are few.
