Starbucks & Panera

As many of you know Nick has been traveling this semester to focus on expanding our support team with Reliant. As he bounces around the suburbs of Chicago much of life looks the same at an initial glance. The sounds and smells of Starbucks or Panera Bread fill the background as he has a conversation about the work God is doing in the lives of students at U of I. His heart rate rises, in part due to the coffee, mostly though due to excitement about God, His redemptive work, and the chance to be a part of that.

Amy, back on campus can be found in a similar setting. Hands wrapped around a cup of tea, she listens to life updates, questions about scripture, and excitement about God as one of the girls she meets with regularly shares. Her heart rate rises, encouraged by the opportunity to disciple this young lady, she speaks words of truth and affirmation. students. Nick seeking individuals to partner with the work God is doing through them. Amy seeking to make loving disciples of Christ out of college students.

Missionaries on the campus of University of Illinois with Illini

Ministry is the life they have been called to and be it meeting with potential new partners, or students, God is present and active.

Thank you for all you do in partnering with Reliant on our behalf to make this ministry possible. We hope you'll pray with us for a fruitful season of support raising and a quick return to campus for Nick.

If you'd like to begin giving to Reliant on our behalf visit reliant.org/nick.modrzejewski

If you have any friends or family that might be excited about the work we're doing we would love to get in touch with them. Email Nick to let him know.
